- *Felt
- *Other items to complete snowman (scarf, hat)

1. Blow up different size balloons (one for the head, one for the torso, and one for the bottom)

3. Leave to dry for a day.
4. Pop balloons with needle to reveal your perfect thread balls.

Christmas Countdown

By: Jett Vaculin

Materials:

Red Charger plate
Black acrylic paint
Black chalk paint
Sand paper
Decorative ribbon
White paint marker
Chalk

Directions:

1. Sand the inner circle of the charger to remove the glossy texture.
2. Paint a layer of black acrylic paint on the inner circle of the charger.
3. Once the acrylic paint has dried paint over it with the black chalk paint.
4. Once the chalk paint has dried write "Days til Christmas" on the plate leaving enough room for the countdown number above it.
5. Hot glue a decorative bow at the center top of the charger.

Tea Light Snowman Ornaments

By: Neeraj Bhakta and Luke Holcombe

Here's what you'll need:
Battery operated tea lights
A Black Sharpie
Red Ribbon
Red Pipe Cleaners
Red Pom Poms
Black Felt
Orange Sharpie
Glue Gun

1. You'll want to position the face, so that the flame is pointing up.
2. Use the black Sharpie to draw a simple face onto the tea light. You can use googly eyes if you want.
3. Cut a piece of red pipe cleaner to approximately 2.5" long.
4. Curve it around the tea light and then add a small line of hot glue on both ends to hold it in place.
5. Add a generous dab of hot glue where the ears would be and add the pom poms. Now your snowman has ear muffs!
6. Cut out a piece of ribbon to be approximately 4.5" long. Then cross it over itself and add a small dab of hot glue to hold it together. The best way is to make the ribbon look like a scarf.
7. Add a small line of glue to the back of the "scarf."
8. And then glue it to the back of the tea light.
9. Cut a piece of the thinner red ribbon to be approximately 11" long and then slide it under the pipe cleaner.
10. Then tie a tiny knot in the ribbon to keep it together.
11. Use an orange sharpie to color the nose/light orange.
12. Hat Option: cut a strip of black felt to be approximately 1-1/4" wide. Glue the hat together with some hot glue.
13. Since there's no pipe cleaner to hold it in place on this one, you'll need to glue the ribbon right to the tea light. Add a generous dab of hot glue to the tea light, add the ribbon, and then add another generous dab of hot glue, and it should keep it all in place.

Handprint Christmas Tree Napkins

Presented by: Kenan and Karsyn Mingus

Supplies:

- * Cloth Napkins
- * Fabric Paint {we used green, yellow, brown and red}
- * Paint Brushes
- * Baby Wipes
- * Paper Plate
- * Trash Bags/Newspapers
- * Cute Little Hands

Directions:

- * First lay your napkins flat on some clean trash bags or newspapers. This is especially important because the fabric paint will more than likely bleed through to the other side and you don't want your pretty table to get messed up.
- *The next step is to decide where and how many handprint trees you want on the napkins. You can do several {just be sure to map it out first hand} or do a single Handprint Christmas Tree like we did.
- * Now grab your green paint and completely cover one of your child's hands with paint. Press it on the napkin to make the start of your tree shape.
- * Now grab your remaining fabric paints and paint on the other tree embellishments {think stem, ornaments, star etc.}
- * Once done, let the paint dry completely before using, storing or gifting away your napkins!

{I highly recommend handwashing these so they are good to go for years to come!}

Bailey Anderle-7

Cupcake Ornament

Materials Needed:

- glass/plastic bulbs
- acrylic paint in the same/opposite color
- glitter or sprinkles
- foam/paint brush
- red pompoms

1. Glob a bunch of paint on the top and try to make it look like frosting as much as possible. Make it thick so that it has some dimension.
2. While it was wet, add the glitter or sprinkles.
3. Using the hot glue gun, glue the cupcake liner to the bulb.
4. Add the "cherry" pompom to the top.

christmas pretzel buttons

Ingredients

Small Pretzels
Hershey's Kisses (unwrapped)
m&m candies

Directions

Preheat the oven to 200°F.

Lay out pretzels on a parchment-lined baking sheet, salty side down if you're extra picky like my husband, and top each one with a Hershey's Kiss.

Bake for about 10 minutes, until the hershey's kisses are just shiny (watch the first batch fairly cloesely and time the rest by that!).

Remove the tray from the oven and immediately press an m&m candy into the top of each kiss.

Let cool completely. (If you don't eat them all immediately, that is!)

and tighten it.

Christmas Calming Bottles

By Trenton Berry

Cameron 4-H

Supplies

- Container: Water or Soda Bottle (16-20 oz), glass Mason jar, or any kind of bottle or jar you find. Plastic is really better if giving it to a child.
- One bottle of clear glue (not white glue that dries clear), or glitter glue: I use the clear glue. Glue/glitter glue works best, but you could also use corn syrup if that's all you have (You have to pour corn syrup directly in the water without letting it touch the sides of the bottle or the glitter will stick to it).
- Water: It can be room temperature or warm if you use regular glue but should be hot if glitter glue is used. If the water is not hot enough then the glitter glue will become clumpy and separate.
- Glitter: You can add sequins, beads, shells, plastic jewels, etc. Glow in the dark glitter looks really cool if you can find it. Less (or even none) is needed if glitter glue was used.
- Food coloring: This is optional. Only use one drop or it becomes difficult to see the glitter.
- Strong glue or duct tape: This is used to fasten the lid to the container.

Directions

- Making a Calm Bottle (clear glue): Fill the bottle $\frac{3}{4}$ of the way full with warm water. Then add the glue (I use $\frac{1}{2}$ bottle of 9 oz Elmer's clear glue) shake to mix it up, add glitter (I use a funnel for the glitter) and shake. If it settles to fast add more glue, if it settles to slow add more water.
- Add 1 drop of food coloring, if desired. The glitter adds color to the water.
- Glue or /tape the lid on.
- Making a Calm Bottle (glitter glue): Instead of clear glue you can use glitter glue. If you go this route then mix the glitter glue in a bowl with very hot water (boil the water) before adding it to the bottle. If the water is not hot enough then the glue will clump up and not work. You can add 1 drop of food color and additional glitter is desired.

1 Tablespoon Water

1 Cup Sugar

$\frac{3}{4}$ Teaspoon Salt

$\frac{1}{2}$ Teaspoon Cinnamon

- In a bowl, mix the sugar, salt, and cinnamon.
- In a separate bowl, whip the egg white and water until frothy.
- Stir in the Pecan Halves until coated well.
- Pour the sugar mixture over the pecans and stir until coated well.
- Spread on a well greased cookie sheet.
- Bake at 250 Degrees for 1 hour, stirring every 15 minutes.
- Let cool on cookie sheet.

Glitter Jars

Presented By: Carlie Eason

What you need: Mason Jar or other Glass Bottle
Elmer's Spray Glue
Blue Painter's Tape
Fine Glitter

- Place the painters tape on the glass or jar wherever you do not want the glitter.
- Spread the glitter out on a plate.
- Spray the glue on the jar.
- Roll the jar in the glitter.
- Let it dry over night, then remove the tape.

These make great candle holders as well as jars to package gifts in or just to use as decoration.

Lighted Burlap Garland

Here's What You Need:

- 2 inch red burlap ribbon
- 2 inch green burlap ribbon
- 2.5 inch natural burlap ribbon
- White mini lights
- Scissors

Here's How You Make It:

1. Cut the burlap into 8-10 inch pieces.
2. Then cut those pieces vertically, down the middle. Otherwise, the ribbon is too wide and looks wonky when tied in a knot on the lights.
3. Choose a pattern in the order you want the colors to show. Start tying those burlap strips around the wire. Tie once.
4. Repeat. Over. And. Over.

Christmas Candle Holders

What you will need:

- Wine glasses or jars (they can be used if they are clean.)
- Paint and brushes (regular craft paint works great)
- Tape (for making lines to separate the colors of paint on the glass)
- Decorations if you want (like ribbon, stick on eyes, stickers, yarn, etc.)
- Hot glue gun (for attaching decorations)

First:

Take your glass and tape and mark where you want your colors to separate. Like if you want your face a different color than the hat.

Next:

Paint the area with your desired color. I find if you let it dry then put a second coat it covers better. Once you have reached your desired coating and the paint dries, remove the tape and finish painting. Again, a second coat maybe needed.

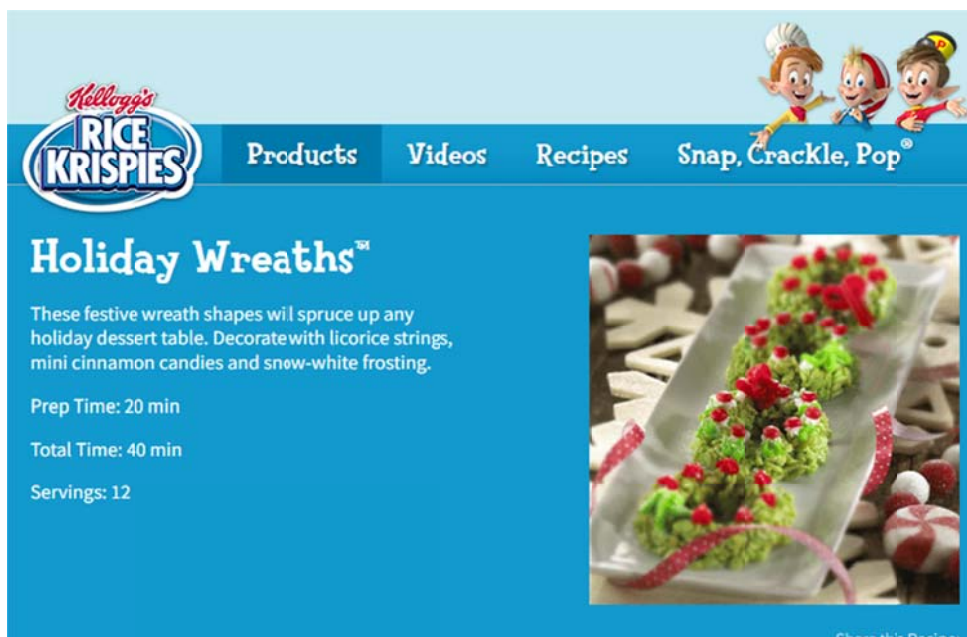

Then:

After all base paint is dry, you can go back and decorate with painted faces, eyes, ribbon, etc.

Finally:

Once all the paint and glue is dry, you may place your candle in or on top of the finished project and enjoy its beauty.

Let's Turn Clothespins Into Snowflake Christmas Tree Ornaments...

Presented by:
Mason & Shawn Leifeste, Cameron 4-H

.....
In just a few steps, turn wooden clothespins into beautiful snowflake tree ornaments. This is a great project for older children to tackle on their own or for small kids with help from a crafty adult.

Materials Needed:

- 8 wooden clothespins per snowflake
- ribbon
- embellishments of your choice
(buttons, beads, burlap, twine, smaller snowflakes, etc.)
- hot glue gun and glue sticks
- spray paint or craft paint or stain and a paintbrush
- craft paper or drop cloth
- scissors

Step 1) Separate Clothespins

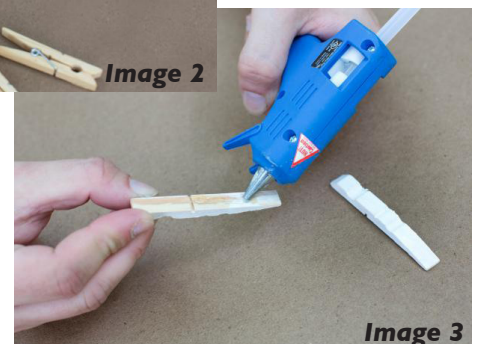

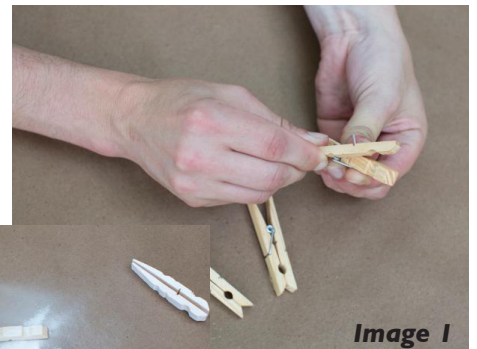

Twist the clothespin sideways and wiggle it loose from the metal spring and disregard the spring. Now you should have two wooden pieces.
(See image 1)

Step 2) Paint

Working in a well-ventilated room or outside, cover a tabletop with craft paper or a drop cloth. Then paint or stain the clothespins. For small kids, craft paint applied with a paint brush is a great alternative. Allow to dry. (See image 2)

Step 3) Glue Clothespins' Backs Together

Add hot glue to the clothespins' unpainted backs. While glue is still hot, press top and bottom clothespin pieces together to create one spoke of the snowflake. Repeat these steps for six of the remaining spokes, leaving one pair of clothespin halves unglued. (See image 3)

Step 4) Connect First Layer of Spokes

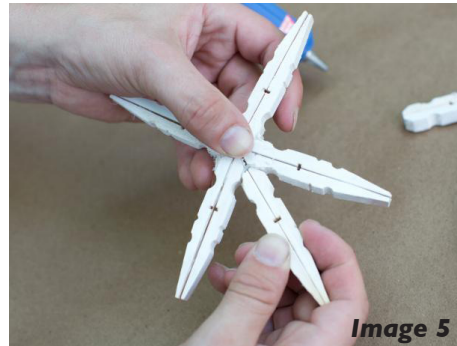

Now connect spokes four at a time since the glue will dry faster with less weight to adhere to. Using a hot glue gun, add a bead of glue along each angled tip. Once four spokes are connected, lay them flat on craft paper or drop cloth to dry thoroughly. (See image 4)

Step 5) Connect Second Layer of Spokes

Connect three of the four remaining spokes by adding a bead of glue to the angled tips, then placing it between each existing, pre-glued spoke.

Note: The final spoke will be outfitted as the ornament's hanger and requires extra steps. (See image 5)

Step 6) Create Ribbon Hanger

Cut a two-to three-inch section of ribbon from the spool. Add a bead of hot glue along the unpainted back of each of the two remaining clothespin pieces. Before joining them together, insert ribbon loop to create a hanger and press both pieces together until glue has cooled. (See image 6)

Step 7) Add Hanging Spoke

Finally, add a bead of hot glue to the angled tip of the hanging spoke. Place it in position and hold in place for a few seconds until glue has dried. Now you have a fully assembled snowflake. (See image 7)

Step 8) Add Embellishments

Now if you want to dress it up a little bit, you can add anything you like to the middle of your snowflake. We used embellishments like smaller snowflakes, ribbon, burlap, twine...the options are endless. (See image 8)

 We plan on making lots of these ornaments this Christmas season. They'll make great gifts for family, teachers, and friends because everyone loves a gift that is homemade and from the heart!! Merry Christmas!*

MAKE GIFT TAGS FROM OLD CHRISTMAS CARDS

Just CUT, HOLE PUNCH, & add a STRING!

You can make gift tags out of the cards. I simply cut out square/rectangle tags, then tuck them away with my Christmas stuff for the following year. (Or use a Christmas cookie cutter as a guide for the cut out.)

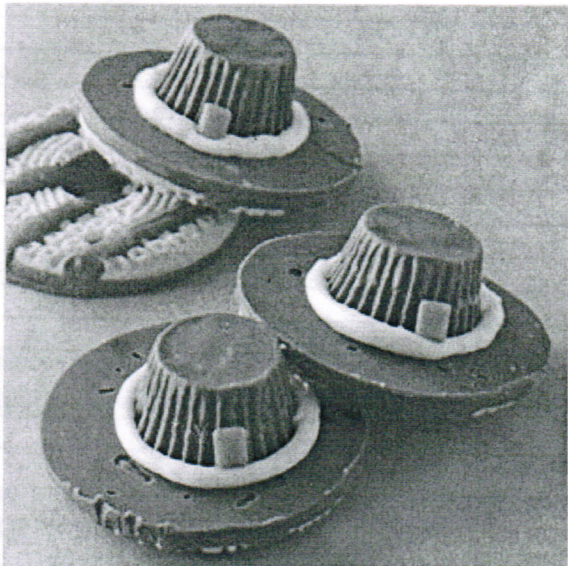

You can also make them a bit more 'fancy' by adding a ribbon to the tag, like these below.
